Resource Scheduler App

Introducing the enhanced Resource Scheduler App, designed to streamline your resource allocation process and optimise efficiency. Our latest update brings an array of new features and improvements to meet your scheduling needs with utmost precision.

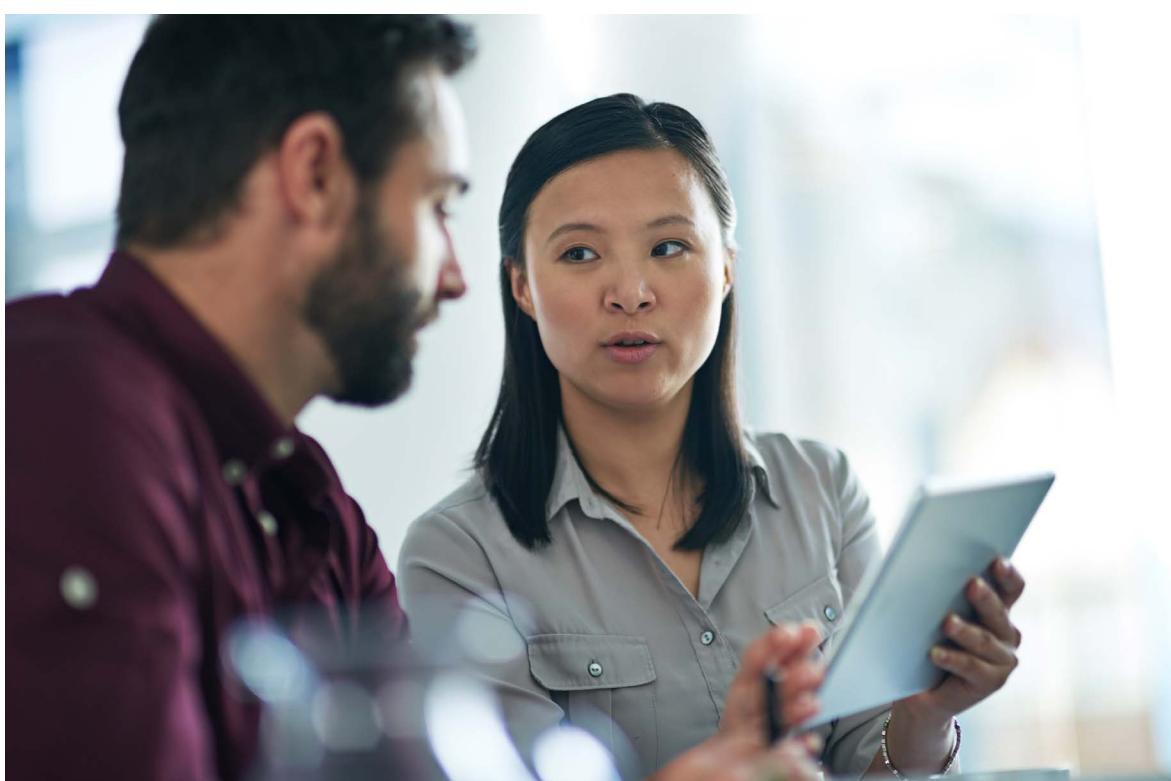

Experience the power of our 'Suggested Resources' feature, allowing you to effortlessly load a template of required skills against each task or service call. Our intelligent filtering system ensures that only resources with the necessary predefined skills are presented to you, saving valuable time and ensuring a perfect match every time.

We've revolutionised task management with our 'Task Attributes' functionality. No longer bound by generic resources, you can now maintain specific skills attributes for individual tasks or service calls. This flexibility empowers you to tailor your resource allocation precisely to the requirements of each assignment.

With the integration of our new notification rules and settings within Pronto Xi, you can stay in control of your booking events. Set up personalised notifications to keep your resources informed at the right time, ensuring seamless communication and an optimised workflow.

Enhancing the user experience is at the heart of our updates. Our visually enhanced resource pane provides a clear and intuitive view of resource availability, enabling you to make informed decisions with just a glance. Say goodbye to guesswork and hello to efficient resource management.

But that's not all – we've also resolved performance issues and conducted minor bug fixes to ensure a seamless and reliable experience. Trust in our app's superior performance to drive productivity and effectiveness within your organisation.
